Scouters Set Up District Council

In Wildwood last week a District Council for the Boy Scout Association was set up when Scout leaders and group committees met with Mr Bill Johnson, Scout Provincial Field Commissioner, in the Wildwood School.

The meeting came as the result of a Manpower Committee that had been appointed previously to start preliminary action towards the formation of the district council. Purpose of the district council is to tie in the activities of a number of Scout committees in various towns, so that they may work under a correlated program in Scouting activities. Representatives from Drayton Valley on the Manpower committee were Mr Jack Bright and Mr Ben Harold.

The group meeting in Wildwood last Thursday finalized the plans for the setting up of the Inter-district District Council. The group voted to call the name of the council the Pembina District Council. At the present time it will include places where Scouting activities are now underway, Drayton Valley, Lodgepole, Wildwood, Whittemourt, Mayerthorpe and Sangudo. The district will include, however, Seda Beach, Wabamun, Camanche, Evansburg, Gairford and a few other local points and whenever scouting programs are established in these places they will automatically become members of the Pembina District Council.

An executive board was nominated and elected at the meeting in Wildwood. President of the newly formed district council will be Mr Albert Wendt, of Sangudo. Secretary will be Mr William Britz, also of Sangudo. Mr. vice-president will be Mr Bob Piper, of Whittemourt. Mr Ken Wardlow, of Drayton Valley, Treasurer. The offices of 2nd and 3rd. vice presidents will be filled by a member from Lodgepole and Wildwood. Board members will be appointed also at the next district meeting.

Mr Doug Aspellet, formerly of Drayton Valley, now living in Whittemourt, was elected District Commissioner for the Pembina District Council.

"Search for Talent"

A finalist in last year's Search For Talent will appear as a guest soloist at the Drayton Valley Search For Talent show scheduled for the Frank Madock School Auditorium on Saturday, November 4th.

Miss Louise Blake of Devon has been selected as the guest soloist for Drayton Valley, according to Mrs. Muriel Soles, president of the Drayton Valley Ladies Auxiliary to the Legion.

The Legion Auxiliary are sponsoring Search for Talent again this year after participating in a similar capacity last year at one of the largest nights of Search for Talent in the history of the project. One year ago, two shows were necessary due to the overflow audience at the Elks Hall. This year the show will be held at the Frank Madock High School through courtesy of the Stoney Plain School Board.

Miss Blake's appearance to the show is a new feature added this year.

The Associated Canadian Travellers who conduct the Search Gerald McMorris who had a great for Talent Tour each year, select day started the ball rolling with a former winner of a talent show key interception, his fifth of to appear as a guest on a show be-

DELPHICS WIN 31-0 IN CITY.

The Drayton Valley Delphics, Harold Townsend's flying Bantam football squad, struck back from a poor showing on Saturday to sweep the Valley's Cats 31-0 in a game played at Comatort Park in Edmonton Sunday afternoon. The local Bantam outfit were really up for this one and despite a rather shaky start, possibly brought on by the fairly hostile Edmonton fans, the boys really got down to business before too long.

GOWDA — PRATT WEDDING

All Saints Anglican Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, October 25, when Miss Sandra Diane Pratt and Mr. Harold John Stephen Gowda were united in marriage by the Reverend Russell Brown.

Mrs. Dudley Edmunds played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. Walter Durham, was lovely in a floor length gown of net and lace over satin. The bouffant skirt featured a wide centre panel of lace. The lace bodice was distinctively styled with long light point sleeves and high front neck line. Her embroidered veil was held in place by a coronet, set with seed pearls and brilliants. She carried a cascade bouquet of red rose buds.

The bride's gift from the groom was a necklace and earring set of diamonds and pearls.

The groom's gift from the bride was an Alaskan diamond cuff link and tie pin set.

Mrs. Kenneth MacKenzie was matron of honour. Her gown was of Caribbean blue organza styled on princess lines with tulle back. She wore matching gloves and white accessories and carried blue mums.

Bridesmaids Miss Paulette Doyle and Miss Jenny Gowda wore identically styled dresses of silk organza. Miss Doyle in coral and Miss Gowda in salmon pink with diamond bodices and full skirts. Their accessories were white and their flowers matched their frocks.

Each of the bride's attendants wore a string of pearls with matching earrings, her gift to them.

The groom was attended by Mr. Mike Gowda, Mr. Arthur Koell and Mr. Kenneth Waugh.

Ushers were Mr. Arthur Durham, and Mr. Kenneth MacKenzie.

During the signing of the register Mrs. William Medwed was the witness. Mr. Malcolm Cambridge sang "O Perfect Love".

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. William Medwed was chic in a blue brocade satin sheath with black accessories. Her corsage was of white baby mums.

Mrs. Walter Durham, grandmother of the bride, was lovely in a blue figured sheath with white accessories and white corsage.

Mrs. John Gowda, mother of the groom, was becomingly attired in a beige sheath with matching jacket. Most gorgeous accessories completed her ensemble and she wore white baby mums on corsage.

The Elks Community Hall was beautifully decorated for the reception with pink streamers and pink and white wedding balls.

The bride's table was covered by the three tiered wedding cake and flanked by tall vases.

Mrs. Selby was master of ceremonies.

Dr. Waugh proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom replied fittingly.

Guests enjoyed an evening of dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Gowda will honeymoon in the United States and live in Gids upon their return.

Out of town guests included: Mrs. John Gowda, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gowda, Mr. William Gowda and Mr. Colin Boyes, Saskatoon; Mrs. Harold Strick, Swatara; Mr. and Mrs. Selby, Drayton; Miss Rose Watson, Mr. and Mrs. William Durham, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunderfer, and Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Medwed, all of Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gotsinger have named their twin Mark and Maxine. The Gotsingers now have three girls and three boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Movoid (nee Eleanor Hill) are now living in Fort Saskatchewan where Rodney is working for Dow Chemicals.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Perrier have moved from Okotoks, to make their home in Jasper Place. During the Perriers stay in Drayton Valley they made many good friends. Among these are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cull, Mrs. Cull and The Perriers enjoyed a good visit last week in the latter's home. The Perriers and guests to all their Drayton Valley friends.

Dr. MacLure will hold an organ recital in All Saints Anglican Church on Wednesday, November 8 at 8 p.m. Everybody is welcome to attend. Proceeds will be used for the organ fund.

Mrs. Albert Stordalvold's brother from Sioux Falls, South Dakota, came to Violet Grove to see his sister and her family this autumn.

It is fifty years since the brother left Norway and the pair had not seen each other since. He was accompanied by his nephew, the nephew's wife, and the nephew's brother-in-law.

A note received last week informed us that Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Beattie have moved from Violet Grove, after a stay of four years, to Olds, where Oscar is welding on a pipe line.

Their many friends with them could look in their new homes. (Many thanks to my unknown contributor, E.D.)

Danny Hines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hines, of Violet Grove, possibly serving in the Navy, was in Halifax at the same time as six other Drayton Valley sailors. Danny hopes to visit some of his father's family in Boston on his next leave.

Eric Edholm gathered strawberries from his garden about the middle of October and pronounced them both large and of good flavour. What is the exact location of this berry patch, Eric? Do you have a savings dog?

Mrs. Austin Leistik attended a reunion of Air Force Veterans held in Edmonton lately. Mrs. Leistik the former Susan Wall, had served in the service in several places across Canada and welcomed the opportunity to visit with old friends.

Mrs. Cecil Wall was honoured by Imperial Oil at a banquet in Edmonton recently. Mrs. Wall, then Mrs. Midge Dose, was Imperial Oil's first secretary in Edmonton.

Last week Mrs. Wall appeared on T.V. in the program "Woman's Edition". She was shown touring Imperial Oil's office.

The Reverend Russell Brown had an operation on Monday morning and is resting in an Edmonton Hospital.

The November issue of Reader's Digest contains a very interesting article under the heading "Real Life Sherlock Holmes" which is an account of the life of an outstanding British medical detective, Sir Sydney Smith.

This article is of special interest to many of us in Drayton Valley because Sir Sydney Smith is the father of Mrs. Catherine M.G. Waugh, wife of Dr. Ian Waugh.

We are sure Sir Sydney's autobiography "Mortally Murdered" would be very interesting reading.

SCOUTS SET UP DISTRICT COUNCIL.

Con't, from page 1, Col. 3) An interim budget arrangement was worked out at the meeting to take care of the immediate expenses of the Council. Each of the group committees from the various towns also plan on selling Scout membership cards, which will be sold to adults who are interested in assisting in the Scout program.

The formation of the Pembina District Council is carried on in conjunction with the forming of District Councils in other sections of the province. The District Councils will make the work of co-ordinating the work of the various Scout group committees much easier on the provincial level. In future the provincial Scout commissioner will be able to meet representatives from all separate Scout groups with each district council, by meeting with the central district council.

PREVENT TRAVELLING GRAIN LOSSES

An investment of $30 to $40 for a tarpaulin to prevent grain losses and the spread of weed seeds will pay for itself many times over. In fact no farmer can realistically afford not to have a tarpaulin on his truck when hauling grain if he expects to consider the cost of producing grain and controlling weeds.

Losses from hauling grain to elevators, seedling cleaning plants and elsewhere in open trucks amount to thousands of dollars every year. Only recently checks have shown an Alberta farmer lost 13 bushels of barley in 18 miles, another lost 10 bushels in 15 miles and in Manitoba a farmer travelling at 40 miles an hour in a 10 mile an hour wind lost 84 bushels of No. 1 feed corn during a one mile haul. In still another case 16 bushels of wheat were lost on a 8 mile haul in a 50 mile per hour wind. Losses in flax or chopped grain would be considerably higher.

Since weed seeds are mainly responsible for the average 2-5 percent dockage in commercial grain, a very significant number would be scattered from an open grain truck. Statistics show that in this province, weeds are already responsible for an average income loss of $10,000 per farm. Many farmers are not aware of the fact that, under the Noxious Weeds Act, they are responsible for the control of weeds to the centre line of roads or road allowances adjacent to their farm land. Here then, is another reason why farmers should use tarpaulins and encourage neighbours to do likewise.

HINTS TO PREVENT BETTER FLAVOUR IN MILK AND CREAM

1. Be sure you cool fresh milk and cream before adding it to the previous collection.
2. Try to feed only good quality hay especially during the winter months.
3. Do not agitate warm milk or cream any more than is necessary.

4. Watch for bitter flavoured milk from cows late in lactation.
5. Cows infected with Mastitis may produce a bitter flavoured milk. This milk should be withheld from your shipments.

The pretty young teacher was instructing her grammar class in the conjugation of the verb "to love."

"Bobby," she said, "can you tell me what it is when I say I love, you love, he loves?"

"That," said the precocious little fellow, "is one of them triangles where somebody gets shot."

Dr. H. M. Horner M.P. Reports On Radioactive Fallout

There has been much written and said about the effects of nuclear war. Some has been correct but much has been exaggerated. There are many misconceptions about nuclear weapons and their effects.

The basic problem is fear of the unknown. Radiation has become a word with strong emotional overtones. People have jumped to the conclusion that radiation is a powerful and that attempts at protection are futile. It is important that all Canadians understand the true facts about radiation and its dangers.

Authorities agree that there are different kinds of radiation caused by nuclear explosions. These present different hazards to humans at different times. Radiation occurring at the moment of detonation differs in its effects from that of early fallout. Early fallout differs in effect from that which appears months later.

Briefly for people in the target area, the chief hazard is blast and heat. For those further away radioactive fallout, is the chief danger.

BOXING OUTRIGHT

The Pembina Boxing Club has taken on a new look this year. Backed by a surge of prosperity and general enthusiasm resulting from the success of the National Tournament held here last May, the local club has been set up on almost an entirely new scale. The equipment acquired for the "Big Splash" last spring was used sparingly and then was inherited by the local outfit with the result that today we have one of the finest equipped clubs in Alberta (if not across the country. Apart from a generous amount of supplies the club has adopted a new policy of organization which should prove very satisfactory to all concerned during the coming season.

During past seasons the club's head coach Gordon Cross often carried the brunt of the local planning, programming, coaching and attending to the many other details pertaining to the sport. He did have assistance from different interested parties most of the time in one way or another, however, the club never was set up on a definite committee basis. This season committees have been formed within the club to take care of the different spheres of activity. The committee headings are as follows: Promotion, publicity, equipment and officials.

Assistant coach Don Booker will team up with Cross to form the Promotion Committee. They will train and coach the fighters, plan and arrange for both at home and on the road, do all the match-making in conjunction with the trainers and coaches of other clubs, and decide in all matters pertaining to programming and the promotion of the game. Al Mac-Caldwell will spearhead the club's publicity drive. This will include the registration of local fighters with the A.A.U. of C., obtaining sanction from the A.A.U. for all boxing cards presented here, keeping all the activities of the club in the news and all other details pertaining to this phase of the program. Equipment will come under the direction of Jack O'Rourke, who will be in charge of the purchase the storing and the distribution of any and all equipment used in our fast program. The Officials Committee has been taken over by Andy Anderson who is the club's referee and a fine all around fistic official. Andy will be responsible for obtaining suitable men to officiate at local shows such as qualified fight judges, timekeepers, drawing room attendants and any other officials deemed necessary by the club authorities.

With this kind of organization and all other things being equal we should be headed for a truly outstanding season of fistic contest. The caliber of our fighter could be equal if not superior to last year's performers who, by the way were good enough to carry away no less than four Provincial Championships. The Combs brothers, Ruffo, Ovin and Martel are all set to answer the bell. Gary Mac-nut and Barry Thompson are also back and there are quite a few new faces around the club. One thing, it is quite safe to program ideas that there will be no scarcity of fistic talent around the Valley this winter.

time goes on. The first local card planned for late November and we should have several shows here this winter. So it looks as if the local fistic faithful will be treated to plenty of excitement before the Golden Gloves and Provincial Championships roll around.

FOOTBALL RETREATING

Football started to make its exit from the "Valley" sports picture last Saturday evening when the Spartans wrapped up their season on their return from Stettler. The High School team were the first to leave the club's premises. The Spartans wrapped up their season on their return from Stettler. The High School team were the first to leave the club's premises. The Spartans wrapped up their season on their return from Stettler. The High School team were the first to leave the club's premises.

As a closing word on the Spartans, I would like to congratulate Coach Brock Barton, his assistants "Nik" Shambashi and Al Sayen and each and every member of the team who within two weeks the grid sport will be over and done with for another year. Harold Townsend's Delphics close out with a game against an Edmonton team next Sunday and the Pee Wee schedule ends Saturday afternoon with a do or die struggle between the Stamps and the Lions. The winner of this contest will play the Spartans in the Frontier Cup Game on Saturday November 11. This will definitely be the last game of the local season.

The Spartans played good ball throughout the season. They proved beyond the shadow of a doubt that they could match the efforts of the average high school team in the province. In its games they had a 2-4 record which at first glance might not seem too impressive, however, when you consider that this was their first year in organized football and a few other detailed factors involved, there is a much brighter side to the story. There were no walk-aways, no forfeits at the local level but throughout the province. Now things are back to normal again. In a few weeks we will be back to our "little" bouts, the ordinary club fights. Those small shows, however, are of utmost importance to the success of the club and to amateur boxing in general. If properly handled these exhibitions of the many are can be stepping stones to bigger and better things. On the other hand if mishandled, you have the degradation of your club and the reputation of the game. In our case we have no worries in this regard. We always have had experienced good clean, well matched fistic cards here in Drayton Valley and we are not organized forces we can expect bigger and better things as

Recently I was talking to Norm Brown of Wetaskiwin coach of the Wetaskiwin High School team and I asked him what would be the changes of our entering that league along with Camrose, Sedgewick, Jasper Place and Wetaskiwin. Much to my surprise he was delighted with the idea and advised me to make a formal written application and he felt quite sure that the necessary arrangements could be made. From this we can take it that there is at least a good chance that the Spartans will be sporting their new white jerseys in league competition in 1982. If we were a member of this league, the distances in any case would not be prohibitive with the exception to the trip to Sedgewick. In this case, however, the teams could be scheduled to meet once on the home ground and once on the home ground of either team. There is a rumor circulating that Sedgewick might drop out of the league after a very poor season. If this were the case the "Valley" team would really have the inside track on entering the Wetaskiwin loop.

As a closing word on the Spartans, I would like to congratulate Coach Brock Barton, his assistants "Nik" Shambashi and Al Sayen and each and every member of the team who within two weeks the grid sport will be over and done with for another year. At athletic district of Drayton Valley, my main concern is the informal growth and development of our young citizens. This is also the main thought in the back of each and every coach's mind whether he's teaching football, hockey, basketball or baseball. These men give freely of their time and energy for the betterment of our community. They are men of character who constantly have the welfare of their charges in mind and one and all have the same goal in mind: to make the athletic program have done, are doing, and will continue to do an excellent job of this all-important work of building future citizens.

Mr. H. van der Veen, a linguist and translator of the Netherlands Bible Society, who has worked for many years in Central Celebes, has recently completed a translation of the Bible into 'Tora' (Toraja).

Mr. van der Veen discovered how the telling of Bible stories helped him to establish an exact translation into the Toraja language. Beginning with a paraphrase of a Bible term, a word, or a temporary male-shift rendering, it became possible to explain this with a more exact rendering.

Another difficulty was in the fact that the Timorese had no knowledge of such animals as lions, bears, camels, donkeys, mules and so on. Illustrations on laminated slides were used and when they saw a picture of a camel, the people gave it two names: "the horse with the crooked back" and "the long-legged horse". When it was explained that the camel was used to travel in the desert, a natural feature known to children from school-teaching, they thought the best rendering in Timorese to be "the horse of the desert".

LUTHERAN NEWS
LUTHERAN DAILY DEVOTIONS
Stewardship of Life. This is the first topic in a series of three sermons on stewardship to be given at St. James Lutheran Church on November 5th by Rev. Edward Steyer.

The Stewardship of Life
Wherever shall a young man choose his way? By taking heed therefore according to Thy Word, Psalm 119:106.
"Ye are not your own; for ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's" (1 Corinthians 6:19, 20). We are not the masters of our fate nor the captains of our souls. We belong to God, body and soul and all things. We are accountable to Him for our lives. He has not left us in the dark as to what He desires: By His Word He would guide us.
Of course, we cannot keep His commandments as we ought. We fall often and sin. That is why God sent Jesus into this world to take upon Himself our many transgressions and to pay for them in full with His own blood. Now God expects us as children of His grace to walk honestly as in the day, to live morally clean lives. This we are able to do only as we "take heed to His Word." At the foot of the cross we learn to say with Joseph: "How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against God?" We must first love the Lord with all our heart, then we shall follow Paul's directive: "Keep thyself pure."
Order my footsteps by Thy Word
And make my heart sincere;
Let us have no dominion, Lord,
But keep my conscience clear.

O Lord, our God, keep us conscious of Thy Word and will, and by Thy Holy Spirit cleanse our lives of all unrighteousness.

Bible Society Speaker

The Rev. John Sorochan, of the Canadian Bible Society, of a subsidiary of the British and Foreign Bible Society was the guest speaker in the Anglican Church for their Sunday Morning Service.

Mr. Sorochan traced briefly the history of the Bible Society. It was named in England in 1804. The formation of the Bible Society came as a result of a young girl, Mary Lyon, saving up her money to buy a Welsh Bible, only to find that there was no suitable Bible printed in the Welsh language.

The story of her quest aroused many of goodwill in England, and after translating the Bible into the Welsh tongue they formed a society to translate it into other languages and dialects.
Subject of the Bible Society, said the speaker, is to provide the Holy scriptures to every man in his own tongue and at a price he can afford.

In the course of that endeavor the past 157 years of effort has seen the Bible translated into 1165 languages and dialects and has won the establishment of twenty-three separate Bible Societies ector or athletic director in any one place is relatively short with all the unholly shifting around that is going on in this field especially in Alberta. I come on this one the other day, however, which goes to show that the odd man does stick to his job. Harry Bauman has been athletic director at Drayton University for forty-one years while Gene Pigeon has held the same position at Holy Cross College for thirty-three years. There is the span of a lifetime, the three score and ten years served by two old men of iron. These fellows are no quitters, when they get a job they hang on to it. A very wise idea after all.

around the world. Some 800 men and women are working on new translations. Fifteen new translations were added in 1961.

Rev. Sorechan pointed out that the Bible Society is the servant of the Church Universal. It is used by all denominations and creeds.

He pointed out further the need for an accelerated program in getting out the Bible in new languages, since the world population is increasing at such a rapid rate and even backward and formerly illiterate countries are now making rapid progress in wiping out illiteracy and peoples who are learning to read should be given the Bible to read before the Communist supply them with their ready literature. The speaker said that some missionary work was still being done in Red China, that it is being done by Chinese nationals. He said that about three quarters of a million Bibles are still being sold yearly in China. This compares with about three million before the Communists took over. Chinese constitute one quarter of the world's population. The Christian church makes up roughly about one third of the world's population. One third of the world's population is communist, and the other third is comprised of the three great religions, Buddhism, Hinduism and Mohammedanism. The speaker said that at the rate of propagation among the unchristian nations, though at present the christian nations comprise about one third of the world's population, within ten years the christian population would be only twenty per cent of the world's total, unless a very aggressive campaign of christian education is carried on by the christian nation year, and the translation, with a very few exceptions, has been remarkably smooth. Explaining the Congo situation Mr. Sorechan said that the Congo Basin country is made up of many isolated tribes, some large, and some quite small, all speaking different dialects and their basis of contact is very limited, which explains why they have had trouble in making the transition in that area.

In the afternoon Rev. Sorechan spoke to the United Church group at Lodgepole, and in the evening he spoke and showed a film in the Church of God. The film little later Werner Baum went over on an off tackle to make the score read 13-0. D.V. Near the end of the half it went to 19-0 when Cliff Lindosko set off on an sweep that ended up in paydirt. Late in the third quarter the Redmen struck again when Werner Baum broke away and scampered 35 yards for the T.D. to make it 25-0. To some things up in five fashion Gordie Vailoff scored on a reverse play late in the game. Gordie showed great style going through the entire Cold defensive unit leaving would-be tacklers strewn all over the field.

David Joyce was at his best, quarterbacking the "Valley" team. He mixed plays like a N.F.L. veteran and completed seven of his nine passes. Garry Mastre played on exceptional game at end pulling that went his way for a total of 90 yards. Penalties took their toll as for as the Edmonton team was concerned. They were penalized for a total of 135 yards while the D.V. squad only were set back 35 yards. In fact the chief official of the game congratulated the Delphics on a hard, clean type of football. Once again Kenny Maiben played a great defensive game for the Red. McMorris and Dave Joyce were also outstanding when the Colts had the ball.

Next Sunday the Delphics will close out their season with a home game against the Mac Bull Dogs. The game goes underway at 1:00 p.m. at the local ball field. The Bull Dogs, coached by Don McCall are quite a formidable outfit and were runner-up for the city

CHAMPIONSHIP IN BASTEN COMPETITION.

A pretty close battle is expected as the Delphics face the acid test of the season.

ROTARY CLUB AUCTION

Youth at Work

Auctioneer Herb Sept, of the Leduc Auction Mart, as he put up the many and varied objects for sale at the Rotary Auction Sale last Saturday. Auctioneer Karl Wahl keeps score on the scorepad.

Auctioneer Herb Sept, of the Leduc Auction Mart, gave his time to the club to auction off the many items that the Rotary Club had donated to the Rotary Club Auction.

All money realized in the project will be used for community betterment projects, which are conducted by the Rotary Club, one of which is their Rotary Community Kid-

Two enterprising young businessmen set up shop in Drayton Valley supplying a needed service to the town. The elder of the two McManus boys, Jimmie, learned the tricks of the shoe-shining trade last summer down in Calgary, when he worked in his uncle's shop, the Canadian Shoe Shine and Shoe Repair. Twelve chairs took care of the shoeshine customers in that large city shop.

Returning to Drayton Valley with the opening of school Jimmie and his younger brother, Terry, built the shoe shine stand themselves and set up business in Henry's Barber Shop, where they shine shoes after school and on Saturdays and holidays.

We feel that this shows more than average initiative on the part of these young men. When you get into their chairs they run on their famous Irish charm too, and we predict that they will do well in this enterprise, and in later years, following up the business experience that they gain in this venture they will be better than well; they will do very well.

If you need a shoe shine you will get a first class shine at the boys' chains in Henry's Barber's shop.

Jimmie McManus put a high polish on the shoes of Don Row, while brother Terry looks on.

IMPORTS RISING
Imports goods have risen in 10 surveys show the average profit of years from 22 to about 44 percent of Canada's electrical manufacturing domestic production. For the same industry was 30 cents on the sales last year compared to 51 for all Canadian manufacturers.

ON REMEMBRANCE DAY

Once again, the Royal Canadian Legion, here and in hundreds of towns and cities across Canada will give leadership in Memorial Services, in recognition of those, who gave their lives in time of war, to the service of their country.

This Remembrance Day observance is not meant to glorify the arts of war. Nor is it meant to instill any spirit of nationalism or idealism in the minds of a new generation, neither to keep alive any feelings of hate and prejudice. But we do glorify in our Remembrance, the idealism, the devotion to duty, the patriotism, the loyalty and the courage of all those who, under the stress of
